This matter comes before the Court on the parties' Stipulated Motion for Extension of Dispositive Motion Deadline ("Stipulated Motion"). In the Stipulated Motion, the parties seek extension of the dispositive motion deadline. The parties have agreed not to extend the current June 6, 2005 discovery cut-off; but have agreed that depositions that have already been noted will go forward. The parties have represented that they have agreed to mediator Michael Cavanaugh and are in the process of confirming a mediation date. The parties have also represented to the Court that these

1 extensions will not have any impact on any of the later deadlines in the case schedule,
2 including the trial date and the deadlines for filing trial-related pleadings. Based on the
3 Stipulated Motion and the records and files herein, the Court finds good cause to grant
4 the extension.
5

6 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that:

7 1. The deadline to file remaining motions, including dispositive motions will
8 be extended from June 24, 2005 to July 5, 2005.
9

10 2. The depositions that have already been noted will go forward. The parties
11 may take the depositions of witness Robert Goodstein, Plaintiff's experts, Plaintiff's
12 psychiatric nurse practitioner, Plaintiff's counselor and Defendants' rebuttal experts at 13 mutually agreeable times after the current June 6, 2005 discovery cutoff, provided that
14 those post-cutoff depositions shall have no impact on the trial date or other pretrial
15 deadlines and shall be completed not later than August 19, 2005.
16

17 3. Plaintiff may provide expert reports on or before July 11, 2005.
18 Defendants may disclose their rebuttal witnesses and opinions on or before August 1,
19 2005 after receiving expert reports from Plaintiff's named experts.
20

21 4. All other dates in the Order Setting Trial and Related Dates shall remain
22 unaffected.
